

JAMES R. "BILL" IRVINE

(January 30, 1927 - March 7, 2010)

James R. "Bill" Irvine, of Severna Park, died on March 7, 2010 at Baltimore Washington Medical Center after a month long illness.

He was born in Lexington, VA and moved to Maryland after serving in the Army during WWII. Bill was a pioneer of the Raised Access Flooring Industry and founded Irvine Access Floors, Inc in 1961. He was a well-liked man who enjoyed woodworking, gardening, bird watching and spending time with his family and dogs; Honey Bee and Daisy May.

Bill is survived by his wife of 63 years, Shirley Irvine, and a daughter Joy DeLeon (Jose) of Severna Park and a son Charles Irvine (Colleen) of Lexington, VA, six grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren, 2 sisters and 2 brothers.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Psalm 23
